

Monday 2nd July 1838 Sydney morning herald

Ship Amelia Thompson

From Plymouth, same day, having sailed from thence the 28th of March, the ship Amelia Thompson, Captain Dawson, with 238 emigrants. Passengers in the cabin— Mr Pinnock and family, Major North, Mrs North and family, Mr and Mrs Wood, Mr and Mrs Hay, Mr and Mrs Cockhill, Mr Baker, Miss King, Mr M'Nab, Mr Chambers, Mr Elmsford, and Mr Durham. The Amelia Thompson has gone into the Quarantine grounds in consequence of the typhus fever being on board.

26th April 1838

From London, on Monday last, having sailed the 10th of December, the ship Kinnear, Captain Mallard, with merchandise. Passengers- Captain Mayne, late of the 80th regiment, Mr Edward Mayne, Mr Charles Appleton, Mr Edward Todd, Mr James A. Carruthers, Wm Bain, sen., and wife, W. Bain, jun., wife, and children, Miss Bain, George Gear, Mrs Wainwright, Master Wainwright, W. Roberts and wife, Thomas Brazil, jun., and wife, Thomas Brazil, jun., wife, and three children, John Stein and wife, John Justice (Justus), wife, and one child, Casper Flock (Flick), wife, and two children, Frederick Lichald (Sickold), wife, and five children; George Guard (Gerhard) wife, and five children, and John Wrenz (Wenz), wife, and three children.

From the Downs, on Tuesday last, having sailed the 26th of December, the ship Ferguson, Captain Robertson, with merchandise. Passengers- Mrs Sharp, Mrs Wills, Miss Wills, Misses Taylor, Mr Henry Lecourt, Mr John Lecourt, Mr John Consens, Mr Francis North, Mr Laun

